to Standpatters

Special to The World.
MUSKOGEE, Aug. 12.—If a "Republican-Governor" club is organized here it is rumored that a majority of old line democrats will join it and help defeat Mayor Walton.

Returns from the recent election show that about the only vote that the Oklahoma City mayor got here was in the negro section of town. The opinion is freely expressed by many prominent democrats that a man who has tied into such a platform at the nonpartisan, socialistic program outlined at Muskogee cannot possibly give the state a straight democratic administration.

Among some of the democrats who have announced that they will join a "Fields" club, if organized, are Rev. W. H. Rosser, Rev. W. H. Edwards and Dean Hardy, secretary of the election board, the latter saying, "I am still a democrat, but I cannot conscientiously support Walton for governor because of his past performances and the things for which he stands."

MYSTERY IS UNFOLDED

13-year-old Boy Confesses That He Accidentally Killed Friend
Upon Hunting Trip.

Special to The World.
CAMDEN, Ark., Aug. 11.—Brose Hall Elliott, 13, has confessed that he was responsible for the death of his cousin Ansley Elliott, Jr., who was killed while the two were hunting on December 27, last year.

At the time of the tragedy the boy stoutly maintained that his little cousin was shot by a negro who followed them into the woods.

Searching parties scoured the woods in the vicinity of the accident for two days, but failed to find any trace of the supposed murderer. The little Elliott boy confessed a few days ago that he stumbled on a limb while he and his cousin were playing "Indian" after they had tired of hunting, that the gun was discharged and Ansley was killed instantly. He was terribly frightened and became imbued with the idea that his uncle and aunt would cease to love him if he told the truth. He lives with Ansley's parents and they attach no blame to Brose for the death.

MALESTER, Aug. 17.—Of considerable interest is a divorce suit filed here recently by Mrs. Gertrude Collier against Rev. J. Thomas Collier, former pastor of the Baptist church of North McAlester. The complaint alleges that on or about June 6 Collier and a woman to whom he had been paying his attentions left here for California and have not returned. The petition further states that the Colliers were married at Jennings, Payne county, Oklahoma, in 1919 and that almost from the time of the marriage the defendant gave undue attention to other women and that about four years ago ran away with the bookkeeper at a laundry which Collier was operating. Mrs. Collier asks for a divorce and custody of three children.

OLDEST CITIZEN OF SHAWNEE DEAD

Centenarian Spent 20
Years in Capital of Pottawatomie

Special to The World.

SHAWNEE, Aug. 12.—Herbert Jarvis, who so far as can be ascertained, was Shawnee's oldest resident if not the oldest in the county, died here at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Libbie Pecore, 204 South Second street.

Jarvis was 103 years old. He leaves nine children, 33 grand children, 35 great grand children and three great great grand children. His wife died 31 years ago July 31. Jarvis who came with his family to Shawnee in 1892 was born in Montreal, Canada, March 21, 1819. He was a devout Catholic since early childhood, and funeral services will be held at St. Benedict's Catholic church this morning at 9 o'clock.

In the spring of 1912 Jarvis lost his right leg just below the knee being run over by a Rock Island switch engine at the Board street crossing. Previous to that time he had been strong and hearty, and in spite of this terrible shock at his advanced age, he quite recovered from the accident, and was able to get along with the help of a wheel chair until the last five months of his life. During which time he was confined to his bed.

The children who live in Shawnee are: Mrs. Libbie Pecore, Mrs. William Pecore, Mrs. Levi Pecore, Mrs. Will Haskins and Joe Jarvis. Mrs. Emma Randow lives at Concordia, Kan.; Mrs. Mary Rehair at Monticello, Kan.; Glen Jarvis, Sumner, and Herbert Jarvis, California. All the children were present at the time of their father's death except the two daughters who live in Kansas, and Gus and Herbert Jarvis who could not be located.

COWETA, Aug. 12.—At the chamber of commerce meeting a state agricultural agent was present and together with the county agent, C. M. Hubbard, reported on an inspection the two made of some cotton fields in the Chickasha bottom. They reported that approximately 40 or 50 per cent of the cotton is damaged by insects and that these fields are few. Some fields have been damaged to the extent that only a bare crop can be obtained. However the case mentioned is a very rare one.

Oil Boom Gone, New Name Sought by the Citizens of Oilton

Special to The World.

OILTON, Aug. 12.—A petition will be presented to the city council soon and then the same petition will be forwarded to the post-office department at Washington to have the name of Oilton changed the new name not as yet having been chosen.

There are several reasons for the change, the principal one being that the name now being used is a detriment and drawback to the town, keeping it from going forward as it should, owing to the fact that its municipal bonds can hardly be sold on the market all because of the name of "Oilton." Stockholders consider that a city bearing such an appellation is nothing more than a mushroom oil town and that as soon as the oil boom is over that the city will be a dead one, hence they hesitate in buying the city's municipal securities.

If the name is changed, business men figure that it will put the town ahead a great deal.

FORM BRANCHES OF BANK SOCIETY

Fifteen Counties to Take Up Plan of Dows
at Once

Special to The World.

BLACKWELL, Aug. 12.—The idea of organizing county bankers associations among the members of the Oklahoma Bankers' association in the various counties of the state, as advanced by G. S. Dows, president, and Eugene P. Gum, secretary, at a meeting with hearty co-operation as evidenced by the fact that Dows has in the last 10 days received replies from 15 of the counties in the state to whom he mailed his first letters, asking that local organizations be perfected.

Each of the counties up to the present time, has no local organization, but say that efforts are now on foot for organizing the banks of each county into local organizations for the purpose of rendering a co-operative service in the work outlined by Dows along the diversified plan of farming.
